

Attachment D: New names provided by Upper Clutha Historical Records Society

Name	Comments in relation to availability	Description
Allan	Already in use	William and Mary. Early settlers. Built the Commercial Hotel 1895, SS Makarora 1900 (important lake transport), what became the White Star Hotel/Pembroke Boarding House. Involved in community affairs.
McCallum	Unable to be used as too similar sounding to McKinnon and therefore wouldn't meet FENZ requirements	Jane and Oswald. Produced the first female child born in the Upper Clutha (also named Jane). He was a shepherd/run manager and helped organise the first Sheep Dog Trials in the World
Hassing	Already in use	George, born in Denmark, arrived here 1860 and was involved in logging, log rafts down the Clutha, ferries, stores, gold miner, as well as English teacher to the Chinese miners at Cardrona. Became teacher at Cardrona and later wrote many articles on Upper Clutha history.
Beloe	On the approved list for Albert Town	Scotty died 1974 and lived up at Cardrona and Albert Town. Nominated by others).
Enright	Already in use	The Enright family were very involved in the development of Cardrona
Blanc	Already in use	Albert. Doctor for the area c1945 and very well-respected.
Maidman	On the approved list for Upper Clutha	Henry and Fanny. Wagoner at Cardrona before moving to Luggate where they built the first Store and hotel (Albion Hotel) 1869. Sold to the Trevathans c 1882 and farmed near Mt Barker. Involved in the community
Allison	Already in use	Mungo. First teacher at Hawea Flast School 1882
Pinn	Already in use	Alfred Pinn. Involved in early boat building – built the “Nun”
Rowley	Already in use	John, First owner of lake Hawea Station (D. 1942). The Rowleys are a very well know family in the Upper Clutha
Lafranchi	Already in use	Gioachimo. Swiss/Italian miner at Cardrona who built the All Nations Hotel. A leading citizen of the town
Paterson	Already in use	(Already Paterson Dr at Lake Hawea!)James. Operated the Cardrona Hotel for many years – 1927-1961
West	Unable to be used as per LINZ rules	Oliva and Gray – Tourist boat operator, harbourmaster and they established a substantial trust fund for the benefit of the citizens of Wanaka
McCrone		Ian, Newspaper reporter/journalist in Wanaka from 1960s to 2000. Ran the Alpine News Agency. Implemented and wrote the The Lakesider (precursor to the Messenger). Provided 4 decades of thorough social history for the Queenstown Lakes area as well as reporting to major newspapers outside the area.