Consultation on Proposed Amendments to QLDC Policy on Development Contributions 2024

Queenstown Lakes District Council (QLDC) has started consultation on proposed amendments to the Policy on Development Contributions for 2024.

The reason for the proposed amendment is to update the contribution amounts as a result of the capital programme within the draft Long Term Plan 2024-2034. As well as the tri-annual update of capital cost and contribution levels, the additional proposed amendments are intended to simplify and clarify certain areas of the policy.

Get informed:

Full details of the proposed amendments are outlined in the Statement of Proposal and supporting information which can be found in the following locations:

- Online at letstalk.qldc.govt.nz
- At Council offices, libraries and recreation centres across the district

- By emailing letstalk@qldc.govt.nz

Consultation on future of Council-owned elderly housing

Queenstown Lakes District Council (QLDC) is proposing to remove all elderly housing units from the Council schedule of assets and transfer ownership to the Queenstown Lakes Community Housing Trust (QLCHT). Submissions are now open.

QLDC owns a total of nine elderly housing units: five in Wānaka and four in Arrowtown. These are currently listed as a strategic asset in the QLDC Significance and Engagement Policy 2021.

By transferring the elderly housing units to QLCHT, the tenants will benefit from better quality accommodation and an increased level of care and tenancy services from a registered community housing provider.
